Donation Sheet Instructions

Each team is required to raise at least $126 in donations. Players are encouraged to ask relatives, or have a parent take their donation form in to work and have them ask their co-workers for donations. Over 29 million people in the United States are affected by diabetes, including 1 out of every 450 children and adolescents.

That includes 11 of your classmates, in the Ephrata Area Schools!

It's easy to find someone with this disease, all you have to do is ask. Raising this amount shouldn't be a problem for a team!

Donations can be made in cash or checks. Checks can be made payable to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation or JDRF or Dave Erb. All of the proceeds from the Ephrata Dodgeball Tournament go toward JDRF's efforts to find a cure for diabetes and its complications through the support of research. Your participation is greatly appreciated!

Forms and money are due by October 25th!

Prize Information

while raising money for a great cause!

- Each player on teams raising $200 or more will be given JDRF bands (much like the Lance Armstrong Bands, but orange in color and proceeds benefit JDRF)!
- Each player on teams raising $300 or more will receive the life band AND an official dodgeball t-shirt!
- Each player on teams raising $500 or more will receive the life band AND the t-shirt AND a knit beanie with the dodgeball logo embroidered on it!
- The top Middle School Team, and the top High School Team who also raise over $750 will receive an additional grand prize.
